

Smith

Martin

Diddle

Baker

Cayton

Bobst

Minford High court named

Students at Minford High School will celebrate basketball homecoming Friday when they host the Northwest Mohawks. The festivities will be between games and are sponsored by the senior class. "Wishing You Were Somehow Here Again" from "The Phantom of the Opera" is the theme.

Natasha Smith will reign as the 2006 basketball homecoming queen. She is the daughter of Pam Smith and the late Kimball Smith. She will be escorted by seniors Michael Miller and Justin Walk. Miller is the son of Gary and Michelle Miller. Walk is the son of Bill and Kimberly Walk.

Stephanie Martin is the senior attendant. She is the daughter of Jim and Lisa Martin. Nick Pendleton, son of Lisa Lancaster will be her escort.

The vocational school attendant is Jennifer Diddle.

She is the daughter of Mark and Kathy Diddle. She will be escorted by Kyle McGraw, son of Brett and Paula McGraw.

Tayler Baker was chosen as the junior attendant. She is the daughter of Robert and Carlisa Baker. Her escort will be Sean Childers, son of Randy and Susie Childers.

Sophomore attendant was Kara Cayton. She is the daughter of Steve and Lisa Cayton. Her escort will be Trent Reynolds, son of Wes and Christine Reynolds.

Freshman attendant is Stacy Bobst. She is the daughter of Kelli Barker and Robert Carter. She will be escorted by Caleb Smith, son of Jerry and Shawna Steinhauer.

The senior class will sponsor a dance following the game until midnight. The dance is open to Minford students and their approved guests.