

Howard Kronk, 53

Howard Eugene Kronk, 53, of Springfield, died Wednesday, Sept. 28, 2005, at his residence.

He was born on Sept. 8, 1952, in Springfield, the son of Ralph Donaldson and Maude Lovelle (Allen) Kronk.

He was a member of the National Speleological Society and the Wittenberg Speleological Society. He owned and operated Howard's Custom Canvas for 30 years.

His survivors include his mother; wife, Carla (Roby) Kronk; son and daughter-in-law, Joseph and Dawn Kronk; grandchildren, Kenny, Jessie and Mariah; brothers, Harold and Elaine Kronk of Minford, Charles and Janie Kronk of Springfield and Michael Kronk of Springfield; sisters-in-law, Susan (Bernard) Rife, Paula (William) Stitzel, Elizabeth (Delmar) Bickle, Cindy (Stephen) Shaw, Jackie (Duane Emmons) Young, Sherry (Newt) Thornsbury; and a host of nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his father; son, Steven Kronk; sister, Joyce; brother, Paul; and mother-in-law and father-in-law, Mary and Carl Roby.

Family will receive friends Monday, Oct. 3, 2005, from 5 to 8 p.m. in the Jackson Lytle and Williams Funeral Home, 2425 North Limestone St., Springfield. Interment will be at the convenience of the family in the Rose Hill Burial Park.

Paid Obituary