

PDT

2-23-2007

Sue Potts

Carolyn Sue Potts, 65, of Minford, passed away Wednesday, Feb. 21, 2007, at her home.

She was born July 29, 1941, in Portsmouth, a daughter of the late Curtis and Lena Belford Diles Sr.

Sue was a nail technician at Classi Image in Portsmouth.

Her husband, Gary Frances Potts, whom she married May 3, 1958, in Portsmouth, preceded her in death April 1, 1999.

Surviving are her husband, Thomas Dressler, of Clifton, Ariz., whom she married in Greenup, Ky., in 2005; three sons, Mark Jeffrey (Teresa) Potts and Matthew Noel Potts, all of Minford, and Michael Gary (Christina) Potts, of Titusville, Fla.; a daughter, Melissa Elaine (Stephen) Appleton, of Portsmouth; five brothers, Paul R. Diles, of Sarasota, Fla., Curtis Diles Jr., of Huber Heights, Ohio, Travis Diles, of Rubyville, Alva E. "Sonny" Diles, of Wheelersburg, and James M. Diles, of Hepzibah, Ga.; three sisters, Lorraine Traber, of Marysville, Deloris Walker, of Minford, and Sonja Rice, of Reynoldsburg; eight grandchildren, Seth, Tori and Charlie Potts, Stacey Mullins, Amanda Adams, Jeremy Preston, and Sarah and Rachel Appleton; and two great-grandsons, Alex Mullins and Wyatt Adams.

Also preceding her in death were a brother, Donald L. Diles; and two sisters, Edna Stiltner and Doris Diles.

Funeral services will be at 11 a.m. Monday at Ralph F. Scott Funeral Home in Portsmouth with the Rev. Barry Pelphrey officiating and interment in Lucasville Cemetery.

The family will receive friends Sunday from 4 to 8 p.m. and Monday from 10 to 11 a.m. at the funeral home.