Green Bay—The Portsmouth, O., Spartans, headed by 'Chuck' Bennett winner of the 1928 Big Ten football medal rub elbows with the Green Bay Packers at the City Stadium here Sunday afternoon in the inaugural clash of the 1928 gridiron season. The kickoff is scheduled for 2 o'clock.

The Ohioans have an aggregation of all stars. 'Father' Lumpkin, of Georgia Tech fame will play fullback for the Buckeyes while Armil, Iowa's great quarterback, is calling the signals. Randolph, Indiana Western conference center is with Portsmouth, along with Fyock, of Pittsburg, and Roy Witt, Tennessee's great forward passer.

'Sneeze' Achiu, the only Hawaiian playing pro football, is in a Portsmouth uniform this season along with 'Red' Joseph, stellar end. Both these players have been seen in action here when playing with Dayton.

A flock of new players will make their debut in Packer uniforms. Two of them are all-American pro team selections. 'Mike' Michaleske, formerly with the New York Yankees and 'Cal' Hubbard, who was the mainstay of the N. Y. Giants. Among the other 'arrivals' are McCrary, of Georgia; Hill, of Stanford; Evans, of California; Kern, of Pittsburg; Young of Ohio and Laabs, of Beloit. Cully Lidberg, Minnesota's great fullback, will return to the Packer fold after coaching for two years at Colgate.

The biggest opening day crowd in history is forecast as the advance sale of tickets has climbed. Hundreds of fans from Upper Michigan and Northeastern Wisconsin have made reservations. In order to give the spectators the best of everything in a football line, the Packer management has installed a set of loud speakers at the park and a capable announcer will give the fans all the details of the encounter along with substitutions and other features.

Gates at the park will open promptly at 12:30 p. m., and the Green Bay Legion band will be on hand early with some new football tunes. The gridiron at the City Stadium is much improved and it will be fast as streaked lightning.
