

Carver graduates from Marine Corps Course

Marine Corps Pfc. David A. Carver, son of Malinda J. and Douglas A. Carver, of Portsmouth, recently graduated from the Marine Corps Basic Combat Engineer Course at Marine Corps Engineer School, Marine Corps Base, Camp Lejeune, N.C.

During the five-week course, Carver received instruction in the fundamentals of engineering support for combat units, including the procedures for building and repairing bridges, roads and field fortifications. Carver also received training on demolition concepts, land mine warfare and camouflage techniques.

Carver is a 2005 graduate of Minford High School and joined the Marine Corps in June 2005.
